

Structured Writing

How the does the writer make the scene seem unsettling or unusual to the reader?

Success Criteria

- Identify a quotation that answers the question.
- Explain how the quotation answers the question.
- Explore another meaning of the quotation.
- Link either one of your ideas (explain or explore) with another quotation or idea in the text.

Example

The writer makes the scene seem unsettling and unusual to the reader when he describes the location as 'this great dungeon'. This metaphor makes the setting seem like a prison and suggests that there is no escape for the men. It also makes it sound dark and frightening. The writer continues to make the reader feel unsettled by describing the 'black tunnel' which seems ominous and hazardous.
